

QUALITY ART EXPERIENCES FOR CHILDREN

2022. . . .

Bookings for next year

Please find attached the current update of term details, timetable and plans for 2022.

We would love you to come back and to continue enjoying and learning art with us in our fun happy studio environment.

We have outstanding programs, brilliant teachers, use only quality materials and are constantly working really hard to give your child the very best art experience.

To join us for 2022, and for us to hold your place before we open up to the wait list, please fill out the details below, add a payment of $50 to secure your place (payment options below) and return to your class teacher, or email through to studios@littlepicassos.com.au

Once filled out, payment received, your selected place in your preferred class will be secure (please note: changes can be made, as the beginning of the school year always throws a curve ball, with different kindy and school commitments, work or practice dates changing, so don't worry, book a spot with confidence, you have secured your place, that is flexible.)

So, check the timetable, look at the recommended age groupings and if you are not sure, chat with your class teacher, please fill out & return with payment, we open up to the wait list on December 15

We look forward to seeing you again for 2022

(we have some exciting things planned for next year)
